New RideFlyReservations.com website launches offering US travellers biggest range of airport transportation booking options.

Connecticut, 14th November 2007: RideFlyReservations.com, an online comparison-shopping website promising leisure and business travellers cheap, stress-free airport transportation at over 85 US and Canadian airports, launched recently.

The site's creators aim to fill a current gap in the market by offering competitive rates for any type of ground transportation, to or from the airport, ranging from economical shared-ride airport shuttle providers through to five-star luxury limousine companies. It is available in 15 languages and offers over 250 transportation providers servicing more than 50,000 cities and hotels nationwide.

Founder and President of RideFlyReservations.com Gregory Bessoni, expressed delight at how much traffic the site is already attracting: "...it has been really positive, the bookings are already pouring in and I think that just goes to show that regular flyers were crying out for a hassle-free airport transportation facility that offered a genuine breadth of choice" he said.

How it works

RideFlyReservations.com works by allowing users to simply enter the details of their trip and providing them with multiple transportation companies offering flat rates to and from their selected airport. Company partners offer a range of vehicle types for varying needs - from budget options to high-end luxury. Searching is done in real-time so that results show only the latest pricing and availability.

Unique emphasis on customer feedback

Unlike most other online booking sites, RideFlyReservations.com has taken the bold step of allowing its customers to rate and review transportation companies online after using their services, giving both pros and cons. The aim is to offer new customers the reassurance of feeling well-informed before they make a booking.
