RideFlyReservations.com Signs Marketing Agreement with Omega Airport Shuttle

Connecticut, 15th November, 2007 – RideFlyReservations.com, the internet's leader in airport ground transportation reservations, has announced a marketing partnership with Omega Airport Shuttle, a leading transportation provider for Chicago O'Hare and Midway airports, servicing the South Side of Chicago.

Under the agreement, Omega Airport Shuttle will promote its fares on RideFlyReservations.com, which will access and display real-time fares and availability throughout its network of partner branded websites. Users simply have to enter where they need to be picked up/dropped off, plus flight and passenger information, to receive a flat-rate quote and be able to reserve the transportation by paying a small deposit online.

The partnership with RideFlyReservations.com will allow the local transportation company to reach a greater market of people flying into Chicago O'Hare or Midway from all over the country.

"RideFlyReservations.com offers a fantastic marketing platform for airport shuttle companies to reach out to consumers nationwide and drive new customers to their company," explained Gregory Bessoni, RideFlyReservations.com's Founder and President. "We are really excited to have Omega Airport Shuttle on board and to be a key part of their online growth strategy".
